EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Edgar W. Averill, Jr. on 9/21/06.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 15, before the word "bulk", insert - -all- -.

In claim 2, line 2, after "fabricated", insert - -from materials from- -; and in line 3, delete "from".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The mass transfer device of claim 1, with the wound fibers around the core with the ends potted to provide a bore fluid inlet and a bore fluid outlet, in combination with the baffle in the central core, which does not allow passage of fluid introduced to the central perforated core at the baffle location and diverts fluid out of the core, around the fibers and back to the core at an opposite side of the plug, in combination with the housing, and end manifolds are not disclosed or suggested in the prior art of record. Applicant admits in the preamble that tubular semi-permeable membranes bundles wrapped around a perforated cord are known in the art. The prior art of record shows hollow fiber membrane bundles including the inlets and outlets for the bore and bulk fluids, the bundles includes a central perforated pipe including a baffles or plug at the inner center of the core pipe, see US patents 5,352,361, 6,790,262, the later references fail to suggests providing the tubular membranes (hollow fiber bundles) with the fibers would around the core with the membrane layers at the angle as claimed in the present invention. The skilled in the art will not have reasonable expectation of success when a mass transfer device is provided with a wound cartridge having the claimed configuration, other than providing a larger membrane surface area. The effect in bore fluid permeation and providing enough contact between the outer surface of the membrane and the bulk fluid cannot be predicted from the prior art of record's teachings. Rejection over US 4,824,566 has been withdrawn, because although the module can be alternatively operated in a bore side feed arrangement, substantial structural modification will be required. Claim 1 is amended to distinguish the core baffle or plug, from the plug in the present invention.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
